ANDREW CHINN FAMILY CONCERT FOR LIFELINK

Dear Parents

As you will be aware from recent information in the school newsletters, we have the pleasure of hosting renowned liturgical musician, Andrew Chinn, on Thursday 23rd June. Andrew will be conducting music workshops with students in Pre-Primary to Year 6 during the day and will be facilitating a family concert in the evening at the Chisholm College Auditorium. The evening concert is COMPULSORY for all students in Year 1 to 6 and siblings in Pre-Primary are welcome to attend.

This event is a fundraiser for the Archbishop’s Lifelink Appeal launched last Wednesday, 8th June. Entry fee is a donation to Lifelink. Limited seating is available and is restricted to immediate family ONLY (this is parents, brothers and sisters NOT attending Yrs 1 – 6 at St Columba’s). Students in Years 1-6 will be seated in class groups and do not require an additional seat. In order to organise seating arrangements for the evening, you are asked to please complete the attached sheet and return it to the school office NO LATER than FRIDAY 17th JUNE. Seats will be allocated on a ‘first come first served basis’. Seat allocations will be sent home next week, with a donation envelope for Lifelink.
