Term 4 Week 5

Jubilee Year of Mercy Reflection

Spiritual Works of Mercy: Praying for the living and the dead

Prayer is one of the most powerful ways we can support others. Joining together in prayer for the living and the dead entrusts us all into God’s care.

✦ Request a mass intention for a friend or family member who is going through a tough time
✦ Request a mass intention for a friend or family member who has passed away
✦ Keep your own book of prayer intentions, writing down the names of those who you are keeping in your prayers

Through prayer, entrust your cares and concerns for those around you to God

Be Allergy Aware!

Families are reminded that St. Columba’s is an Allergy-friendly school. Please DO NOT bring nuts or nut by-products onto the school grounds. Some of the foods to avoid are Muesli Bars with peanuts, Nutella products, peanut butter and any other foods containing traces of nuts.
Understanding Children’s behaviour

Parents always ask me, “Why does my child behave the way he does? Why does he nag/she swear in front of me/they fight all the time?”

In most cases this is the wrong question.

It’s better to ask, “What’s the purpose of my child’s behaviour?”

Kids rarely behave in a vacuum. There’s usually a good reason – although kids usually can’t verbalise it. They behave in ways that work in terms of getting a pay-off so someone takes notice. Someone will change their mind and go easy on them. Someone may favour them over others. This is known as purposeful or goal-oriented behaviour.

There are three main goals for children’s misbehaviour:

1. Attention

Often kids will misbehave as a way of keeping parents busy with them. You’ll know it’s attention-seeking as you’ll feel annoyed. (e.g nagging)

2. Power

Some behaviour has the purpose of letting you know that you can’t make a child do anything they don’t want. Grrr! You’ll know it’s about power as you’ll feel angry. (e.g arguing)

3. Hurt

Sometimes kids will behave in ways that make you feel hurt or even guilty. This can be a form of retaliation for comments said or deeds done, or even as a form of pestering you to comply to their wishes. You’ll recognise this as you’ll feel hurt or a sense of guilt. (e.g calling you names)

It’s easy to recognise these goals after the event. You can sit back and reflect on how their behaviour kept you busy; made you angry or hurt you. But it’s hard when you are under stress and/or duress to recognise these goals; and impossible if your first response is to react.
Emotionally-intelligent parenting requires that you a) avoid the first impulse when kids misbehave, and b) check in with how the behaviour makes you feel.

So next time your child misbehaves – nags, whines, tells a fib, ignores you or any number of poor behaviours – rather than react, step back and take a breath. Then conduct a self-check to see how you feel about the behaviour. This will guide you to how you should respond – hopefully rationally and in an adult manner.

St Vincent de Paul Christmas Hampers

Term Four is already upon us and Christmas is fast approaching. The Christmas season is a time of joy when families come together to celebrate and to share. It is also a time of giving.

At this time of joy and celebration for most, far too many Australians face a bleak Christmas as they struggle to pay bills and provide the basics for their family, let alone cope with the extra costs associated with Christmas.

This year, we are once again participating in the St Vincent de Paul Society’s Christmas Appeal in the hope of providing some happiness and enjoyment at Christmas. Each class will be collecting donations of non-perishable food, or gift vouchers, for the St Vincent de Paul Christmas Hamper Appeal. Items may be placed in the boxes in each classroom. These food items and gift vouchers will be made into hampers, which will be given to local families who are in need of food and support during the Christmas period. We know you will once again support this appeal, which concludes on Friday 25th November, with your usual spirit of generosity and compassion.

Some suggested items are:

- Christmas pudding
- Custard
- Tinned fruit
- Bon bons
- Tea
- Coffee
- Milo
- Long life milk
- Dried fruit
- Confectionery
- Fruit mince pies
- Sweet biscuits
- Savoury biscuits
- Candy canes
- Jelly
- Jams
- Long life juice
- Christmas cake
- Christmas napkins
- Christmas tablecloth

Extras

- Pancake mix
- Tinned vegetables
- Muesli bars
- Pasta
- Pasta sauce
- Vegemite
- Soft drink
- Cordial
- Cereal

It is imperative that all goods are in date and in good condition. Please do not include any chocolate items as the St Vincent de Paul Society does not have refrigeration facilities to store them. Gift cards are also very much appreciated.

The hampers will be collected on Wednesday 30th November. Could you please make sure that all items are at school no later than Friday 25th November.

- catechism classes for children ($60)
- living expenses for a child in an orphanage ($48)
